31st October, 1st November 2020 Solemnity of All Saints

Entrance Antiphon: Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading; Apocalypse 7:2-2, 9-14: I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language.

Psalm Response: Ps 17: Such are those who seek your face, O Lord.

Second Reading: A reading from the first letter of St John:

We shall see God as God really is.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Come to me, all of you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give your rest, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 5; 1-12

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

This Weekend : Retiring Collection for the Johnson Association (for the sick and retired Clergy).

MASS INTENTIONS : We are happy to receive Mass Intentions for the departed souls or other intentions. Please place the stipend in an envelope with the name of the intention and place it with the Collection.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS.

Loving Father, we pray for all those we love who are no longer with us, who are now in your merciful embrace. We pray for their eternal rest. We pray for those who are left behind, who feel the pains of loss. We pray that we will be attentive to those who mourn, who may need some help from us, a loving word, a kind gesture.

Death is the part of life we struggle with in our society. We don't talk about it much. It is almost denied since for many people, there is only this life so the end of life is a disaster, a loss of everything.

This is not the faith of the Church: Jesus died and rose again, he conquered death. Our friends and loved ones who have died have not disappeared. They live in the radiance of God, forgiven, loved, looked after. This is our comfort and our sure and certain hope. Amen.
