Let us pray that Catholics may place at the centre of their lives the Eucharistic Celebration which transforms human relationships profoundly and opens up an encounter with God and their brothers and sisters.

Jesus, Bread of Life every time we receive you in the Eucharist,
 You come to give new meaning to our weaknesses, and You remind us how valuable we are in your eyes.
 Through frequent participation of this sacrament, we unite more and more to you, and we assimilate to your way of living, your ability to break yourself when giving yourself to your brothers and sisters and your ability to respond to evil with good.
 Give us the courage to look past ourselves and to bow down with love towards the weakness of others. Amen
